To whom it may concern,

Working with RSG on our project Sunny House has been an outstanding experience. From the start, they showed a deep understanding of our artistic vision and remained highly responsive and attentive to our specific requirements throughout the collaboration. Their consistent communication and commitment to excellence ensured a smooth development process.

RSG's team of talented artists and designers delivered artwork that not only captured our unique style but also met our expectations in terms of quality and creativity. They demonstrated professionalism, working diligently to meet deadlines and budget constraints. Their ability to incorporate feedback showcased their commitment to client satisfaction.

We highly recommend RSG as a reliable outsourced art service, delivering game art on time and within budget.

| OUR WORKPLACE

Talent Development

Each artist and team member has daily/weekly/monthly plans and goals, and everyone has the opportunity to improve their skills. The studio motivates, and supports taking courses and challenges, and helps with them monetarily + on-site as a team.

If the artists are not busy on the project, they work on improving their skills, our portfolio, internal IP, or some freebies we do for indie studios from time to time, making a positive impact on the industry.

GAME DEVELOPMENT AND ART POPULARIZATION

Friends of friends Social Community

- Establish a community of industry enthusiasts.
- Offer thematic lectures and personal experience examples.
- Foster communication and maintain channels in public media!

Universities and Schools initiatives

- Motivate budding artists to explore the world of game development!
- Show production process with real-life examples.
- Demonstrate what the workflow looks like from the inside.
